MORE than 25 dancers came from across Melbourne to enjoy the Harlequin Rounds dance club's Christmas break-up.

Dancing included rumbas, cha cha, waltzes, two-steps and foxtrots, with some special rhythms to keep everyone on their toes.

Guest cuers Ella and Pat cued some round dances while Mike from Jaybee Square Dance called square dances.

The raffle of handmade lace Christmas decorations raised $82 for the Guide Dog Association of Victoria.

Harlequin Rounds meet every Monday at 61-69 Pietro Rd (Gate 2), Heatherton.
